Method:

1. 1.
Dissolve 100G SKITTLES into 100ML of water in a small pan, chill the liquid and place in a vacuum pac bag with fresh, firm strawberries. Vacuum on full and allow 1 hour in infuse.
2. 2.
In a separate pan, place strawberry SKITTLES, milk, and cream, and bring to a boil. Leave pan to one side and take one small log from a very hot BBQ (ideally birch wood).
3. 3.
Place the hot log direct into the mixture and allow it to infuse the smoky taste.
4. 4.
Pass through a fine sieve and pour over the yolks, whisking thoroughly.
5. 5.
Freeze for a Paco Jet or churn in an ice cream machine, as per directions of that machine.
6. 6.
Dissolve Isomalt over a high heat and spread onto a silicone mat into thin shards. Dust with dried strawberries.
7. 7.
To finish, grill the strawberries over the BBQ until the centre is just about soft and the outside is charred.
8. 8.
Place into a warm sauté pan and deglaze with the remaining syrup from the bag.
